

MORNING SESSIONS (9 – 12 am)

- 106 Special Brains, Special Needs: Teaching Strategies for “EA”S
Resource Person: Gary Anaka
Maximum number of Participants: 75
Is your job getting harder? More and more students in all grades are manifesting some sort of learning or behavior problems. Discover easy, practical brain compatible support strategies, that take little time and no effort to prepare, and you can use in any classroom situation. Learn how the brain learns best to help your students reach success. This workshop is a high energy, optimist training session offering new state-of-the-art professional skills and quality classroom proven strategies. Cut your stress and learn how to influence today’s young brains.
- 107 No More Excuses, Lets Get Balanced!
Resource Person: Anita Mann
Maximum number of Participants: 20
An informative and interactive workshop covering the importance of having balance in one’s life, especially for professionals in the education/helping field. We will discuss the definition of balance, why it is vital, what gets in the way, tools for overcoming the obstacles (including visualization techniques), and how to get started. Participants will leave with practical tools they can begin implementing immediately in their personal and professional lives.
- 108 Sensory Integration Disorder , What it is and What to do
Resource Person: Katherine Turner
Maximum number of Participants: 30
An explanation of sensory integration and expressions. Tools which can be easily created and used in a classroom setting
- 109 “Making Safety Your Lifestyle Choice”(Both on and off the Worksite)
Resource Person: Rick Rossetto
Maximum number of Participants: 30
Interactive fun group session with main focus on “Safety Attitudes” starting at home and carried on at the workplace. Course will also include Basic Fire Extinguisher Training using our “Bullex” Infrared Training System. Refresher WHMIS Training will also be covered.

- 110 Beginners Computer Session
Resource Person: Chris Madarasz
Maximum number of Participants: 25
This workshop will be specifically designed to meet the needs of CUPE employees. Retrieving Payroll information and Email records from the District mainframe system will be explained, as well as other computing topics from start-up, to surfing, to shut-down. Registrants will need to contact Help Desk for their user id and password before the 22nd
- 111 Work-Life Balance Made Easy
Resource Person: Karen Cross
Maximum number of Participants: 25
“Work-Life Balance Made Easy” offers practical tools, techniques, and strategies to help alleviate stress, create a better balance between work and life, and ultimately help workers to feel happier, and more productive.
- 112 Non Violent Communication
Resource Person: James Squissato
Maximum number of Participants: 16
This is a method of communication that attempts to meet people’s needs by addressing feelings. It has been used as conflict resolution throughout the world-Afghanistan, Israel etc. It has also been found useful on all levels of relationships- workplace, marriages etc.
- 113 BCESIS For Records Clerks (Room F 104)
Resource Person: Sue Holden
Maximum number of Participants: 25
For Records Clerks Only: This demonstration/ discussion will include BCESIS topics at the secondary school level.
- 114 Respect – Responsibilities - Rights EA Essentials
Resource Person: Jan Leroux
Bonnie Bestwick
Maximum number of Participants: 30
This is what every EA needs to know. Join in discussion with EA issues, concerns, roles, responsibilities and rights as they pertain to the classroom, collective agreement and EA Handbook.
- 115 KEV “Online Cash Counting Resource” Training
Resource Person: Faye McKinnon
Maximum number of Participants: 15
BY INVITATION ONLY- a hands–on session for Head Secretaries on how to use the KEV “Online Cash Counting Resource.” This new tool, which is already in use in all of our secondary schools and in a handful of elementary schools, allows users to simply Count, Key and Click their way to completing their school deposits.